

FALL CONCERT WELCOMES AUTUMN TO CCS

Thursday, October 22, marked the first CCS concert of the school year. As expected, things were a little bit different. The administration split the concert into a junior high section and a senior high section in order to thin the crowd and allow for physical distancing measures. Guests and performers wore masks, spread out, and made use of plexiglass dividers

Under the direction of Mrs. Fox, the senior high handbell choir presented "Exuberant Joy" by Arnold Sherman. The piece was a toe-tapping celebration with bell shakes and martellatos from the beginning to the end.

"Shenandoah," and "Land of Our Dreams." Both handbell choirs presented impressive and technically challenging pieces. The senior high groups entertained with pieces from Mary Poppins and ended the concert by pointing the audience to God with Mark Hayes's "In the Morning, Joy."

in an effort to meet best practice recommendations from local officials.

Even with all these modifications, the music faculty and student performers presented a high quality program which pointed the audience to God and His goodness in our lives.

The junior high provided a taste of Americana with pieces like "American Folk Trilogy,"

SOCCER TEAM ADVANCES TO SEMI-FINALS

The Crusader men represented the school well with a ten-game winning season, earning a place in the playoffs. After a hard-fought 2-1 victory over Heritage in the quarter-finals, the guys fell in the semi-final game to Land O' Lakes, 5-1. With a young, learning team, our Crusaders are poised to come back even stronger next season. Congratulate our soccer team as you see them around campus! They did a great job. Go, Crusaders!

STUDENT SHOWCASE

In this space, CCS will share some things that students are learning in their classes.

Junior Bryce Dowdy shared several of his favorite proverbs from his study of Ben Franklin's Poor Richard's Almanac:

"Eat to live, and not live to eat."

"One today is worth two tomorrows."

"Three may keep a secret, if two of them are dead."

"Fish and visitors stink in three days."

These witty reminders are certainly helpful hints about how to live life in a responsible way!

Reaching new heights, Freshman Sarah Tluczek goes up against Palm Grove on October 9. Our varsity volleyball ladies played hard but were unable to get a win.

"Lord, I want to be a Christian in my heart!" Seniors Malachi Fox and Amelia Anton shared this prayer during the Fall Concert on October 22. The message of this duet is deeply convicting to all Christians who desire a closer walk with their Creator.
